

Weber's Bricklaying Competition Guide

1. Time and Place

- 1.1. The competition will be taking place on the 20th of March 2024 from 13.45 to 16.45.
- 1.2. The competition will be held in the inner parking lot of the Students' house of Tallinn University of Technology (Ehitajate tee 5, Tallinn, Estonia).

2. Goals of the Competition

- 2.1. To popularize the profession of construction engineering.
- 2.2. To offer students and engineers in the field of construction engineering and architecture a challenge to employ their knowledge and through it enrich their work and studies.

3. The Task

- 3.1. The contestants have to build a wall based on technical drawings and parameters given at the start.
- 3.2. The contestants have 2 astronomical hours to complete the task.
- 3.3. The following tools will be provided:
 - 3.3.1. Trowels, mixing bucket;
 - 3.3.2. A saw;
 - 3.3.3. Measuring tape, rope;
 - 3.3.5. Gloves and protective clothing, glasses.

4. Participants

- 4.1. Competition will be held in teams of two.
- 4.2. Participation in the competition is free of charge.
- 4.3. There is no set age limit.
- 4.4. It is recommended for participants to have basic knowledge about masonry.
- 4.5. Participation is voluntary and at the participant's own risk. The hosts take no responsibility for possible accidents and their consequences.

5. Registration

- 5.1. Registration can be found on BuildIT 2023's homepage.
- 5.2. In case of free spots, it will be possible to register to the competition on the spot before the start of the competition.
- 5.3. By signing up, all participants voluntarily give their consent for the use of all information gathered during the event including pictures and videos made of the participants for marketing purposes by BuildIT.

6. Evaluation

- 6.1. Scoring will be based on how well the finished wall matches the starting task (general parameters, angles), the cleanliness of the workstation and time spent.
- 6.2. The maximum possible score is 35 points.

7. Awards

- 7.1. Places I, II and III will receive a reward.
- 7.2. Best team from gymnasium will receive a reward.

8. Organizers and Judges

- 8.1. Patron of the Masonry Competition is Saint-Gobain Eesti AS.
- 8.2. Hosting the event: Student Council of the School of Engineering at Tallinn University of Technology, Saint-Gobain Eesti AS
- 8.3. The jury: Representative from Saint-Gobain Weber.
- 8.4. The lead-referee: Kairiin Tali.

*The hosts reserve the right to make changes in the competition rules should there be a need to.